

Organisation of rally on “Meri Mati Mera Desh” and Panch Pran oath taking ceremony

The Sarbati Devi Women’s college NSS wing organized a rally to felicitate the martyrs and a cleanliness drive under the “Meri Mati Mera Desh” scheme introduced by Prime Minister Narendra Modi. The Campaign had the tagline “Mitti ko Naman Veeron ka Vandan.” The aim of the campaign was to celebrate the achievements of the nation and its bravehearts. The students collected maati (soil) from the institution and took out a rally and paid tribute to Martyr Captain Pradeep Kumar Panda. Thereafter the students took the pledge on Panch Pran by affirming their commitment toward the country. They also cleaned the statue of Captain Pradeep Kumar Panda and the nearby area under the cleanliness drive campaign. Volunteers gave speeches on various martyrs and sang patriotic songs. The program ended with the distribution of refreshments to the volunteers.
