

Celebrated Van Mahotsav Week 2026

Sarbati Devi Women's College, Rajgangpur celebrated Van Mahotsav Week on 04.07.2026 with great enthusiasm and environmental awareness. The programme aimed to promote tree plantation, environmental conservation, and ecological responsibility among students and staff.

The programme was conducted under the guidance of Principal, Dr. Ashok Kumar Beura, whose inspiring words encouraged everyone to actively participate in protecting nature and maintaining a green campus. The Chief Guest, Mr. Guru Charan Mandal, Forest Range Officer, highlighted the importance of forests in maintaining ecological balance and emphasized the need for collective efforts to conserve the environment. He motivated the students to plant and nurture trees as a lifelong commitment towards a sustainable future.

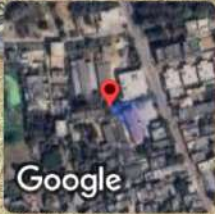

The programme was graced by IQAC Coordinator, Mr. Sapan Kumar Panda, and Dr. Sasmita Lenka, Lecturer in Education, who appreciated the initiative and encouraged students to become responsible environmental stewards. The event was successfully coordinated by the NSS Programme Officers—Ms. Sasmita Dandasena, Ms. Anmol Joslin Kullu, and Ms. Hemakanti Meher—with the active participation of NSS volunteers, faculty members, and students. As part of the celebration, 50 saplings of different varieties were planted across the college campus. The plantation drive symbolized the institution's commitment to environmental protection and sustainable development. Students also took a pledge to care for the planted saplings and contribute towards creating a greener and healthier environment. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the Chief Guest, Principal, faculty members, NSS volunteers, and all participants for making the Van Mahotsav Week celebration a meaningful and successful event
